

Dear prospective student,

Thank you for your interest in applying to study at Cambrian College. We would like to inform you that starting July 1st, 2023, we are no longer accepting direct applications for admission. Instead, we ask that all students interested in applying to our college use the services of one of the international student agencies listed below.

These agencies have been authorized by our college to assist students with the application process and provide additional support and guidance throughout the admissions process. Please note that using the services of these agencies it may make the application process smoother and more efficient.
